

Working Together for Strong Communities

NCHEC NeighborWorks Center for Homeownership Education and Counseling

Sacramento, California–October 14-16, 2014

Help Your Clients Reach Their Financial Potential

An emerging field, Financial Capability combines comprehensive information sharing and education efforts with personalized coaching to tap one's financial potential. Join us for this new series to build or expand the scale and scope of your organization's financial education programs with top-quality Financial Capability, Housing Education and Counseling (presented by NCHEC).

Apply for a Scholarship

Scholarships for free tuition are available.

View course details and APPLY today.

If you are on the registration website and do not see the event, please return to this flyer to use the link again.

Course Offered

HO209rq Delivering Effective Financial Education for Today's Consumer

These courses are part of a new Certification in Financial Capability - see the NeighborWorks America website for more information.

Deadline: September 30, 2014

Citi Foundation

The Citi Foundation and NeighborWorks America have partnered to provide Financial Capability Training series in several cities around the U.S. These trainings will expand the scope and enhance the quality and sustainability of nonprofit financial capability programs by providing training on effective program implementation and financial coaching.

Connect with NeighborWorks America . . .

NeighborWorks America Training Division
999 North Capitol Street, NE Suite 900 • Washington, DC 20002
Phone: 800-438-5547 • E-mail: trainingevents@nw.org
Subscription Requests | Privacy Policy | www.nw.org/nchec